Barcelona Landmarks and Attractions

The city of Barcelona, known for its stunning architecture and vibrant culture, attracts millions of tourists each year. The most famous landmark in the city is the Sagrada Familia, a basilica designed by Antoni Gaudí, which has been under construction since 1882. Although it remains unfinished, its unique design and intricate details make it a must-see destination for visitors. Besides the Sagrada Familia, Barcelona is also home to the lively La Rambla street, where street performers and artists entertain crowds, and the historic Gothic Quarter, where narrow alleys lead to hidden squares and centuries-old buildings. Despite its popularity, Barcelona has managed to maintain a balance between preserving its cultural heritage and embracing modernity.

Which of the following statements is true based on the passage?

- a. The Sagrada Familia was completed in 1882.
- b. La Rambla is located in the historic Gothic Quarter.
- c. Barcelona has been able to maintain a balance between its history and modern development.
- d. Antoni Gaudí designed all of Barcelona's famous landmarks.
